Chas. E. Brown Drowned

Mooney Trial Comes To a Sudden Close

MOONEY CASE NOW IN HANDS OF THE JURY

(Special to Record-Herald)

MARTINEZ, April 9—The arguments to the jury in the Mooney case were closed shortly after 1 o'clock today and the jury was ordered locked up by Judge Barber to deliberate on a verdict. A verdict is expected some time this afternoon.

The attorneys for the defense in their address to the jury severely scored the Pacific Gas and Electric company for its activity in prosecuting the case. The Richmond police also came in for a drubbing at the hands of the lawyers.

Judge Barber's instructions to the jury are considered very impartial by attorneys who have been watching the case.

Was a Surprise

MARTINEZ, April 9—When the examination of Hurley was ended, to the surprise of the court and the prosecution, the defense rested its case and the big trial came to a sudden and unexpected ending. The arguments of counsel to the jury then began, M. R. Jones opening the argument on behalf of the prosecution. The arguments will be completed probably this afternoon and if possible the instructions will be given and the case given to the jury for a verdict.

The prosecution closed its case a few minutes before 11 o'clock on Wednesday morning when Leslie Oliver, the second explosive expert to be put on the stand retired at the conclusion of his cross-examination.

LOOSE OAR AND SKIFF TURNS TURTLE IN ROUGH SEA

Well Known Plasterer While Making Trip From Bulldog Point to Sheep Island in Company With Charles L. Langford Shortly After Noon Today Meets Death in Waters of Bay—Skiff Became Unmanageable and Could Not Be Handled in Rough Sea—Police Searching for Body—Companion Resuscitated By Dr. U. S. Abbott After Experience in Cold Water.

Today shortly after the noon hour, while Chas. E. Brown, aged 23 years, a plasterer, in company with C. L. Langford, while rowing from Bulldog Point to Sheep Island, the skiff in which the men were crossing the waters of the bay turned turtle and Brown was drowned.

Brown and Langford had a load o' paint and other material in the boat which they purchased this morning from the paint store of Chas. Swartout, on Seventh street, and intended to paint and calk a boat which Brown owned moored at Sheep Island. They left Bulldog Point shortly after 12 o'clock and while about half way across the expanse of water between the main land and the island they lost an oar. The sea was running rather rough at the time and the boat became unmanageable. Finally a large wave took the boat broadside and both men were thrown into the water. Brown cried to Langford that he intended to swim to the shore on the mainland and he cautioned Langford to cling to the boat. Langford says he saw Brown swim a few strokes and then go under. He failed to come up again.

In the meantime Langford clung to the boat which rapidly drifted with the strong tide toward Oakland and passed the Sheep Island shore. Two fishermen in a launch who gave their names as Gus Cizmich and Steve Gloria saw the man's predicament and rescued him just in time as he had become so exhausted that he would have been compelled to let loose of the skiff in a few minutes.

Langford was brought to Bulldog Point and one of the fishermen made his way to the old Great Western brick yard and the police department was called up on the phone and informed of the accident.

Officers Ruiz, Phillips, Sprague and Brown notified Dr. U. S. Abbott and the party went out to Point Potrero in an auto. Langford was in a pretty bad way when the physician arrived as he had swallowed an enormous amount of salt water while in the water clinging to the boat. The sufferer was given medical attention by the physician while the police made an attempt to locate the body of Brown without success.

It is probable that several days will elapse before the body rises and floats ashore where it can be recovered.

The dead man is survived by a mother, Mrs. M. A. Brown, who resides at No. 134 First street where her son resided with her. The other surviving relatives are three brothers, Joe, Pete and Edward, who also resided with the aged mother.

The mother became prostrated with grief when informed this afternoon of the death of her son by a Record-Herald representative.

Weeds Must Go Is Demand of Official

The luxuriant vegetation now occupying the vacant lots and parkings in Richmond will have to be cut down and removed, according to a recent edict promulgated by City Superintendent of Streets Frank Welch and Health Commissioner C. R. Blake, which edict will be enforced immediately, notices to that effect are being sent out today.

Property owners are to be given ten days in which to clean up their yards and dispose of the weed crop. If there be any property owner with temerity enough to disregard the orders of the city authorities the superintendent of streets will employ a gang of men to do the work and the costs will become a lien on the property.

Health Commissioner C. R. Blake has sent out a circular to all residents of the city informing them that it is time to clean up. He says that the only way to reduce the fly population is to clean up all rubbish and filth where the pests delight to breed in.

HANLON WILL SPEAK HERE TOMORROW

County Superintendent of Schools W. H. Hanlon, of Martinez, will deliver a lecture at the Lincoln school auditorium tomorrow evening on the subject of "The Most Imperative Needs of the Schools of Contra Costa County."

Mr. Hanlon is expected to explain many needed reforms in the matter of school courses and also remedies for the congested condition of many of the county school buildings.

CITY ATTORNEY HALL GOES TO SOUTH LAND

City Attorney Hall and Engineer Geo. Posey, of the firm of Hayland, Dozier & Tubbitts, departed this morning for Los Angeles to confer with some of the Santa Fe officials in the matter of terminal rights in the neighborhood of the approaches to the municipal tunnel.

Attorney Hall expects to be absent from this city until Monday next. He does not anticipate any difficulties with the railroad corporation in the way of coming to some final understanding concerning rights-of-way privileges in the tunnel matter. The railroad company wants the location of the municipal wharf changed a few hundred feet to allow for expansion in their plans for an improved terminal service in Richmond and an understanding will be arrived at between the railroad and the city's representative at this time.

RESIDENTS ARE TERRORIZED BY PROWLERS

A number of the residents in the vicinity of the notorious White House are appealing to the police for protection from numerous night prowlers that have terrorized that district since the opening of the White House as a hotel.

Mrs. W. B. Walker residing in the West Richmond tract was badly frightened last evening when a man tiptoed up to her front window and watched her through the glass. Another woman, Mrs. Wagle, was followed for several blocks by an unknown man as she was returning from a shopping trip.

Some times the doctor won't tell because he doesn't want to frighten you, and at other times he won't tell because he doesn't know.

WANT AD IN RECORD-HERALD FINDS WALLET

John Petouses, a business man of San Francisco, Tuesday lost his wallet containing many valuable papers. He had but little idea where he had dropped the wallet so hied himself to the Record-Herald office and inserted a classified ad. Wednesday morning bright and early Mrs. Chas. Stanley, a resident of this city, called at the Marathon Candy store with the lost property. Mr. Petouses is delighted with the results of his efforts to find the wallet through the aid of the Record-Herald and he feels extremely thankful to the finder for her promptness in returning his property to him.

Track Walker Drops Dead on Way to Work

Manuel Mendosa, 50 years of age, residing at Bay View, near Rust, and employed as a section hand by the Oakland Traction company, dropped dead while on his way to work this morning in front of the Thorp cigar store at the corner of Washington and Standard avenues. Before medical aid could be given him he had expired, death being due to heart failure.

An effort was made to reach his wife but proved a failure as she had gone into Oakland earlier in the day. Mendosa has been in the employ of the Oakland Traction company for five years during which time he made a large number of friends.

The deceased was a native of Portugal, having come to America in 1893. The remains are at the Smallwood undertaking parlors.

Rain Holds Up Work Of Double Tracking

A gang of fifty men were put to work this morning at the intersection of Ashland and Macdonald avenues and before the downpour of rain had caused the men to seek shelter a good portion of the street had been torn up. It is expected that work will be resumed tomorrow morning provided the rain does not interfere with the work.

The work train on the local street car line was busy all day distributing heavy 100-pound rails along the main thoroughfare of Richmond. The heavy steel will be used for the second track and also to replace the old, but lighter material heretofore used by the street car company.

MERCHANTS ELECT NEW OFFICERS

The members of the Merchants' association, at their meeting held in Sequoia hall on Tuesday evening, elected the following officers: C. C. Olney, 1st vice; Mrs. H. E. Weeks, 2nd vice; Charles Yonce, secretary; R. C. Anderson of the Polytechnic Business College and treasurer, H. J. Grundy.

There is some talk amongst many of the merchants in regard to closing their stores during the hours of 12 and 3 o'clock tomorrow.

Some men make it a matter of policy not to spit on the floor until they arrive at the best room in the building.

"To Observations Which Ourselves We Make, We Grow More Partial, for the Observer's Sake."

CY. WARMAN, POET AND JOURNALIST IS DEAD

Cy. Warman, famous poet and western journalist and writer of many western sketches that have appealed to the hearts of mankind, died in Chicago on the 7th inst., after a long period of illness. He leaves a void that no one else can fill quite so good as he. This writer and Cy. Warman were old time chums in Colorado, long before fame and wealth came to him, and ever after, and now, realizing that he has passed forever away from the world he helped materially to brighten, and remembering so many happy days we have spent together, years ago, we feel sort of choked up and weepy and our glasses get all misty and the keys on the typewriter all seem to blur and run together tonight, somehow or other. We knew him well and loved him much, for he was a lovable man, with a big brain but the heart of a child. Ah, well, it must come to us all sooner or later, though it's always sad in the coming, especially to the loved ones. As Cy. himself said:

"But there's a consolation in the thought that when we're dead,
If we have written something good
our efforts will be read.
And friends will plant forget-me-
nots and come and sit and sigh,
And irrigate our grave with tears,
when we go off and die."

We may have written something in these columns about Cy. Warman and perhaps told the story of his first rise to fame and wealth, or maybe it was in the old Daily Leader when we first came to Richmond, or perhaps it was in a San Francisco daily before that, but be that as it may, it will bear repeating, for it is both true and interesting, and is apropos at this time, now that he has journeyed on where even editors and writers and poets are at peace in the everlasting sunshine of the Father's grace.

Among the early day journalists of the west who won the spurs and the title by the sweat of his face and honest toil backed up by real merit and actual genius, was Cy. Warman, writer, poet and one whose memory will rank along with that of Gene Field and others who have made the west famous in poetry and prose. He had been for years past in great and high-priced demand in New York, rich and famous, but time was when, like Mark Twain, he wrote not on a rosewood desk but on an empty stomach.

Cy. Warman was formerly a railroad engineer at Salida, Colorado, but his bent was to journalism, and the divine afflatus would give down, and his health and nerve also gave down under the strain of the mogul whose chuckachucka of the stack awoke the echoes of hill and dale as the local wound its way over two streaks of rust and a right-of-way; and so he attempted to break into print, with the usual discouragements and heartaches.

We chummed together in those olden days and many a time and oft would mingle our tears, sorrows and two-bit nieces together. Upon one occasion we dropped into his dingy little office in the back part of the top story of a Seventeenth street building in Denver, and he handed us a letter just received in the morning mail from an eastern magazine, enclosing a little poem he had sent them, and offering him $5 for it. He said: "Seems like it's worth more, but I need the money. What would you do?" We read the little jingle, and then read it again, and yet again, and then told him we would own it forever before we would take $5 for it. "But," said Cy., "I've got to have a pair of shoes." We happened to have the price of shoes that day, and so he put the little poem in a drawer and we sallied forth to do battle with the leather trust.

The poem was "Sweet Marie," and later on when set to music it brought him in royalties of over $10,000, while the whole world sang and played and whistled it, and echoed with its cadence.

Congressman Underwood beat Congressman Hobson a mile and a half in the senatorial race in Alabama. Hobson never was a statesman, and being a hero and slobbered over by the women turned his head. Underwood is a good, sound man. Hobson ran on a prohibition platform.

"THE WICKED FLEETH WHERE NO MAN PURSUETH"

The Fresno Republican sneeringly refers to the statesmanlike qualities of John Bunyan Sanford, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Governor, as exhibited in his personal platform. John Bunyan's platform may be more or less diverting, but it compares favorably with Hiram W's. Oakland speech, which may be accepted as Johnson's platform. Here's an extract from the latter:

"My good women, you will hear whisperings in your clubs and when you go about. These women will be in the hire of reactionaries, paid to whisper in your clubs and among you women to overthrow the Progressives."

If this is not the beastliest of buncombe it is a sign of insanity. The asylums are full of people who believe that they are being pursued by malignant persons who wish them harm.—Fresno Mirror.

At the risk of being dubbed a socialist, we wish to remark that no man who does not render useful service to the world and his fellow man has any right to eat.

In disagreeing with our friends and neighbors, among whom we class the Oakland Tribune and Congressman Joe Knowland, on the canal tolls matter, we desire to pay them this compliment: We did expect that sort of thing from William Randolph Hearst, but not from the Tribune or Knowland.

30,000 VOICES!

And Many Are The Voices Of Richmond People

Thirty thousand voices—What a grand chorus! And that's the number of American men and women who are publicly praising Doan's Kidney Pills for relief from backache, kidney and bladder ills. They say it to friends. They tell it in the home papers. Richmond people are in this chorus. Here's a Richmond case:

Mrs. M. E. Stubblefield, 534 Ripley Ave., Richmond, Cal., says: "Two of my family have used Doan's Kidney Pills and in both cases the best of results were had. One of the family suffered from attacks of backache and often felt too sick to run down to do any housework. Doan's Kidney Pills cured this case. Recently, I gave Doan's Kidney Pills to one of my relatives who had weak kidneys and couldn't control the kidney secretions. It wasn't long before this weakness went away. I strongly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to all sufferers from kidney complaint."

"Electricity can make household drudgery a thing of the past and that as soon as woman pleases."

WHY NOT ELIMINATE THE DRUDGERY from ironing? Think of the many weary steps you take from stove to ironing board and back again. How often do you lift the heavy irons? And yet with all your care the clothes are sometimes scorched or soiled with soot.

STEGE HORSE CASE AGAIN TO THE FORE

MARTINEZ, April 9.—The "chicken feed" horse of Stege is coming up. This time in a civil action threatened by its former owner, Mrs. Hannah Fallon, who now recognizes the worth of the steed she cast off in disdain and contempt. He, the equine, was picked up by Alfred J. Pederson only to prove a "jinx" to him for the steed ripped the fur clothing off its back on a wire fence and its death was prescribed by a humane officer.

Then Pederson thought of the poultryman, Truman Stump, and sold the bark denuded creature to him for chicken feed. Stump tried healing lotions and low, from out of the apology for a steed a noble prancing stallion emerged. Then into the cooler with Pederson whom Thomas D. Johnston successfully defended against the fiendish efforts of Assistant District Attorney A. S. Ormsby to land him in the stir.

Now cometh an appeal to the civil law to replevin the horse. DeLap and Horner are to act for Mrs. Fallon and T. D. Johnston is to stand for the Saggitarian compound of horse and rider.

CONTRA COSTA COUNTY NEWS

MARTINEZ

This scribe took another floating spell around the county Monday and dropped off again at Martinez to see the monkeys jump. It was a busy day. All the lawyers from everywhere, with innumerable witnesses were there attending court, at which a dynamite trial was on and all sorts of high explosives flying through the air—the hot air emanating from many legal cracks and crannies. Sheriff Veale had a bomb in one hand and a fulminate cap in the other, while Chief of Police Arnold of Richmond and John Birmingham unraveled miles of fuse, and "Ruckie" showed up with pocketsful of clockwork. There was only one safe place in the court house and that was Martin Joost's office, and it was not overly safe, as Martin bore a bruised nose which he explained had nothing to do with the fact that he had recently committed matrimony, but was due to attempts at splitting the kindling wood for the morning fire, something he was not skilled in as yet.

Also the county fathers were in session, counting the ballots cast at the recent recall election in which the people very plainly said that Senator Owens should stay where he was and that this recall special election business was getting to be pretty much a farce that ought to be drowned in a tub of water, like young kittens are when they become too numerous.

The trees and flowers are looking beautiful now around the courthouse yard, and when Hasey moves the courthouse down to Richmond all that fine shrubbery ought to be dug up and brought along, except, of course, that big lemon tree by the county jail, as Mr. Hasey would not want to hand anybody lemons.

Warren H. McBryde, supervisor for this district, was auditing a lot of road bills and as busy as he was in Washington last ummer that hot day in June when he mingled with the Richmond boosters and went to the bat hard for the harbor appropriation. McBryde made a fine talk to the congressional fellows, and it had its effect, as he had no personal interest and was, in fact, not a resident of Richmond but of Pinole. Richmond owes him much good will for his efforts in this behalf, for the time and money he spent to help us with our big project.

Mr. Birmingham is arranging with the insurance company to allow the editor of this paper to move the county exhibit he has been gathering for the Panama Pacific exposition, and the same will be moved by the first of next month to the exhibit headquarters we are establishing in the Lick building, San Francisco. Everything grown in the county is pickled in cut-glass bottles, including a number of political bees that have buzzed around in life about long enough. They look real placid and calm in alcohol, like some people do.

The county supervisors counted the cash on hand in the treasurer's office and found that it came out with the auditor's report to a penny. A grave rumor that was whispered about that there was four cents over, and that Rio Baker and Al Sullinger had divided it and bought a partnership Mexicano Stinkero cigar, one smoking while the other spit, could not be traced to its source or verified. It is probably a campaign lie.

Editor Galvin of the Richmond Independent showed up in search of news items or anything else not nailed down, and unthinkingly sat down in one of the supervisor's chairs. There is an ironclad rule there that anybody who does that shall be fined a box of cigars and be imprisoned in the county jail on bread and water until the fine is paid. Galvin went out and stood somebody off for the box of cigars and escaped the dire alternative. We all smoked.

Editor Rugg has just returned from Los Angeles, where he went to find out how it would seem to be a grandpa, and he brought back with him a new story about a dog that could outrun any automobile ever made. It is a bad story and Rugg is a bad man.

Jim Rogers denied the allegation that he was a candidate for the judgeship, and offered to whip the allegator. And Ralph Jones said he had a family to support and the judicial meal ticket wouldn't be big enough to reach around.

Buildings are going up in various parts of the town, and the big new opera house erected by Henry Curry is a thing of beauty and a joy forever. Attorney Ralph Wight will christen that opera house on the 15th, not with the usual bottle of Winehaven's best, but with a grand opera under the auspices of the Choral Society and at which people will wear black coats and white gloves, all same pallbearers.

A number of new manufacturing enterprises are nosing around Martinez and if the business men's association would wake from its Rip Van Winkle siesta something good could be landed.

PINOLE

Next Monday Pinole will hold a municipal election, at which 290 voters are entitled to lineup, of which 173 are registered as Republicans, 47 as Democrats, 40 as Socialists, 21 Progressives, 4 Prohibitionists, 4 declining to give themselves away and 1 Independent. Banker Downer, Warren McBryde and Editor Ebsen are probably three of the four Prohibitionists, but we can't guess who the other is. It can't be Mike Lucy, as he lives in Crockett.

The Woman's Improvement Club is fostering the Pinole branch of the county library and will soon get busy with a spring clean-up movement and various municipal improvements. The Times wisely suggests that an entertainment be given to help the club out financially, which is a pious notion.

A big delegation of pretty Martinez school marms showed up at the Pinole-Hercules school last week on a visiting tour, and Ed. Ebsen went out and bought a fresh collar and a red tie.

Messrs. E. M. Downer and L. E. Hart, of Pinole, are associated with B. Schapiro, J. E. Bouquet and C. Cascioni, of San Francisco, Oakland and Richmond, in the opening of a new and large residential tract adjoining Richmond on the east, and will make a barrel of money out of it in time, all of which they deserve.

CROCKETT

The enlarged Signal showed up upon this exchange desk this week for the first time in a long while, having got lost in the male, female, parcel post or elsewhere, and we find it greatly improved. A new editor is at the helm, B. H. Stevenson by name, and he slings a pen or typewriter, as the case may be, just like an old hand at the business. Crockett is a good town—a mighty good town, full of good people and having one of the biggest manufacturing industries in all the west, and it is deserving of a good local paper, hence the improvement of the Signal is right in line and to be highly commended.

Crockett proposes a big May Day fete on May 1st, at which the children and grown folks will join in one big and grand celebration. There will be hundreds in a May-pole dance among the kiddies, folk dances, crowning of May Day Queen, songs and amusing sports. In the evening the older folks will dance and make merry with good-eats and music, in which all the lodges and other organizations will participate. We are sure going to take that fandango in, for we do dote on the kiddies.

Last Sunday the baseball fans and organizers of many surrounding towns gathered at Crockett and organized a league. Some rapid local ball games will result during the season, and Crockett proposed to be right in it.

Mrs. A. A. Paul, wife of the local druggist, has a lemon tree which produced this year enormous lemons, one measuring 15 inches in circumference one way and 13 the other. Some lemon—hand it to Laidlow.

The Carquinez Social Club will give a basket picnic at Glen Cove, Sunday, April 26, making the trip on the launch "Dixie."

The local reporter of the Signal perpetrated this poetic crime and then jumped into the straits:

I think I'll drop off at Pinole
To look at the deep flowing bowl,
Fill up on their chowder—
'Tis made of gunpowder—
And then I'll crawl into my hole.

PITTSBURG

The Pittsburg high school has an agricultural department and is now connected up with the University of California in the progress of this research work. Just now it is studying and experimenting on silk worm culture and has a number of the worms on hand. The southern part of this state ought to be a great place for that industry, especially in the Imperial valley, though lack of mulberry trees is a drawback that must be overcome by finding a substitute food for the worms. This scribe investigated a silk worm farm near Peabody, Kansas, some years ago, which was a success as far as the production was concerned, but it did not turn out to be a financial success, as in China and Japan, where the industry flourishes, labor can be had for a few cents per day.

Pittsburg has an active Woman's club and a splendid Civic Center. Now organize a redhot, live-wire chamber of commerce and all will be well.

On the evening of April 18th a grand ball will be given by the Native Daughters at Pythian hall, and now that spike-tailed tango coat we loaned to Harry Hammond of Byron has to be sent up to Joe Tracy. Ah, well, we can't wear it setting out cabbage plants on the ranch, anyway.

The shipbuilding plants and other factories are busy and business is beginning to hum around Pittsburg.

ANTIOCH

Paper mills are buzzing and the canneries figuring on a banner year. So many carloads of asparagus have been shipped that the growers and packers all have money to burn now as well as the satisfaction that Antioch has a statewide record as being the biggest and best shipper of that toothsome vegetable in California or any other state.

The big meeting of the Masons of Contra Costa county is to be held at Antioch on Sunday, the 19th inst, and that it will be the biggest ever is a sure thing, according to the committee now at work on the details of the entertainment.

Friday evening, the 24th, will be a gala night for the Odd Fellows and their families and friends, for they are to dance at the Belshaw theatre and feast and make merry generally. The pretty sisters of the Rebekah lodge will provide the supper, and that is guarantee enough that it will be prime A. 1.

The asparagus workers are to give a ball tomorrow evening, and a good time. They have a good time coming.

The Santa Fe railroad is to spend $15,000 on local improvements at Antioch, and the town is spending twice that while the citizens are vieing with each other in the improvement line. In fact, improvement is the order of the day.

About all some people do is to try again.

FOR THE GRIP

Peruna Is Sometimes Used With Good Results

Mrs. Jane Gift.

A great many people use Peruna for the grip. Some use it as soon as the grip begins, taking it during the acute stage of the disease, claiming for it great efficacy in shortening the disease, and especially in shortening the after stages.

Many people take it after they have had the grip. Their convalescence is slow. They have suffered along for a month or two, without any signs of complete recovery. Then they resort to Peruna as a tonic, with splendid results.

Mrs. Jane Gift, R. F. D. 1, Athens, Ohio, whose portrait appears above, writes: "I think I would have been dead long ago if it had not been for Peruna. Six years ago I had la grippe very bad. The doctor came to see me every day, but I gradually grew worse. I told my husband I thought I would surely die if I did not get relief soon.

"One day I picked up the newspaper and accidentally found a testimonial of a woman who had been cured of grip by Peruna. I told my husband I wanted to try it. He went directly to the drug store and got a bottle of Peruna. I could see the improvement in a very short time and was soon able to do my work. I continued using it until I was entirely cured."

Mr. Victor Patneaude, 328 Madison St., Topeka, Kas., writes: "Twelve years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe and I never really recovered my health and strength, but grew weaker every year, until I was unable to work.

"Two years ago I began using Peruna and it built up my strength so that in a couple of months I was able to go to work again. This winter I had another attack of la grippe, but Peruna soon drove it out of my system. My wife and I consider it a household remedy."

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets

CARRY RECALL FIGHT TO COURT

The superior court of Alameda county will be petitioned today to issue a writ of mandate directing the Alameda City Council to meet immediately and call the much disputed recall election. This was decided on last night at a conference between members of the Alameda Civic League and several attorneys interested in the recall movement.

"So flagrant a violation of the law was the action of the city council in refusing to call the election, that we have no doubt of the outcome of the case," said John L. McVey, who with Henry G. Tardy and other attorneys has drawn up the petition to the court.

"It was the city council and not the city clerk who passed on the admissibility of names on the petition and there is no law on the books which gives the council any such power. The clerk is instructed by the charter to return the petition to the petitioners if he finds an insufficient number of names.

"Instead of doing this, he filed the petition with the council. He knew very well that there were plenty of names on the recall petition and he did not care to risk the responsibility of declaring the petition void, so he passed this unpleasant and dangerous business on to the council."

If it is found this morning, that immediate action would be taken by the state supreme court in this case, the petition for writ of mandate may be filed with the higher court but it is expected that the superior court will be appealed to since the council's action was in direct violation of the opinion rendered a few days ago by the superior court sitting en banc.

CATHOLICS TO MEET AT TOWN OF CROCKETT

CROCKETT, April 9.—The members of Leo Council No. 86, Y. M. I., of Port Costa and Leona Crockett Institute, Y. L. I. of Crockett are making great preparations for the district meeting of both orders to be held here Saturday evening, May 23 and Sunday, May 24.

More than 1000 visitors and their friends are expected to attend the affair. Meetings of the several counties who are arranging for the affair are held weekly and the efforts of the committees to enlist the aid of citizens of Crockett is meeting with much success. The personnel of the committees is as follows:

Finance committee—C. Desmond, P. Lucey, P. J. Murphy.

Hall committee—T. Cox, Thomas Hopkins, J. Smith T. Clifford.

Open air mass committee—Rev. Father Kenny, P. Murphy, C. Crowley.

Parade committee—T. J. Crowley, Jos. Hughes, Thomas Murphy, M. Finerty.

Sports committee—D. Murphy, J. Soares, Thos. Casey, J. C. Murphy.

Press committee—Dennis Lucey, A. Murphy, Jas. Ahern.

Arrangements have already been made for the electric decorations of the streets which will be strung with electric lights and flags. This feature alone will outdo anything before attempted in the county.

Saturday evenings' program will consist of a parade, literary exercises in Rithet Park at which Grand President Jas. A. Bacigalupi of San Francisco will deliver an oration. Mr. Bacigalupi is a very prominent attorney of San Francisco and his ability as a speaker is well known. Fireworks will be given at the close of the exercises in the park and the balance of the evening will be taken up with dancing in two halls and a banquet.

Sunday's program calls for a monster parade of Y. L. I. and Y. M. I. councils. It is estimated that close to 1000 will be in this parade and will be featured by many drill teams of both orders besides many features of different councils immediately after the parade which will disperse in Rithet Park. The open air mass will be celebrated at which a special choir has been selected to render the music and a sermon will be delivered by a well known priest.

A dinner will be served the visitors after mass. The afternoon will be taken up with sports and other entertainment.

The initiation of a class of candidates will take place during the afternoon.

Eddie Dearborn will leave this morning for a trip to Mariposa county, where he goes to accept a position with the Mariposa Quartz Mill Mining company, in which his father is interested.

The first witness called by the defense was Robert Callenden a fisherman living near Point San Pablo who met the three men, one of whom was Mooney in a boat a short distance from shore. He saw their boat was leaking and told them they had better go to town to get some oakum and putty to fix the leaks. Upon his direct examination he told of the articles which he saw in the boat but omitted the suit case, which he was forced to admit he saw when he was cross-examined by J. J. Barret and which he said "slipped his memory." He denied however that the box containing the so-called infernel machine or the umbrella-shaped package were in the boat which had from seven to ten inches of water in the bottom. Callenden was subpoenaed by the prosecution but was not put on the stand, being used by the defense as their witness instead.

That Mrs. Mooney, wife of the defendant has taken an active part in the case was proven by Callenden when he testified that he had been interviewed by Mrs. Mooney who arrenged a meeting between him and Attorneys Johnston, McNutt and Lister. He said he had met Mrs. Mooney at O'Keef's shack and along the railroad track the last meeting being about two weeks ago. John O'Keefe who was called by the prosecution was re-called by the defense but was not in the court room and an adjournment was thereupon taken until 1:30 o'clock.

O'Keefe stated in the afternoon that dozens of detectives had been scouring the hills (they were to be found under and behind every bush) looking for the dynamite which they suspected to be hidden there and that while "they were making fools of themselves they sought to make a fool of him."

The principal witness of the afternoon was E. S. Hurley, secretary of the Electrical Workers' Union who experimented with fulminate of mercury caps in Oakland, which caps he procured from the Stege works and which according to his tests did very little damage. The prosecution sought to bring out on cross-examination that Hurley did not follow the same course as he would, had he been using the caps in a mine for a detonator. According to Hurley's experiments made with loose earth as a container and in the open air the caps did little if any damage. He admitted however that he knew the caps would injure his hand had he held one therein at the time it was exploded.

Tuesday morning and afternoon and a part of Wednesday morning's session proved to be disastrous ones for the defense, for the prosecution, through its experts, Bermingham and Oliver put on testimony which was not to be broken down and try as they might the defense attorneys were unable to make the experts contradict themselves and break down their own testimony. Leslie Oliver, assistant general manager of the California Cap Works was on the stand late Tuesday afternoon and Wednesday morning, testifying to the high explosive qualities of fulminate of mercury, their manner of manufacture and method of handling together with the damage which can be caused by them under certain conditions. Henry B. Lister who conducted the cross-examination sought to break down Oliver's testimony with the aid of a text-book from which he read excerpts and copied tables but Oliver did not at any time claim to be familiar with the book-knowledge but gleaned his knowledge of the explosive from practical manufacture and handling of the same in his factory where he learned the business from the ground up.

As adjournment was being taken Tuesday afternoon the suggestion was made by the defense that 14 similar caps be experimented with but the court did not look favorably on this suggestion and Oliver volunteered the information that it would be necessary for the caps to be brought to Martinez in an automobile as they could not be carried on the trains and no shipment would be made until the third Thursday in this month. McNutt scoffed at this however and said that he would bring the caps here on his person and the defense offered to take the responsibility for the experiment. On Wednesday Judge Barber asked what would be done in this matter stating that while not heartily in favor of the scheme, the court would permit the experiment being made if counsel could agree by stipulation.

It became generally known Tuesday afternoon that the prosecution would rest some time during the day Wednesday and in consequence there were many relatives and friends of the defendants in court to hear the opening of the defense's case. No opening statement of what line of defense would be pursued was made to the jury by either of the three attorneys, McNutt calling Callenden to the stand as soon as the people rested.

Prominent among the visitors at the trial Wednesday were Miss Maud Younger, a well known worker among the laboring classes, and especially a worker for the betterment of girls' working conditions. She takes a prominent interest in all labor matters and spent the entire day in attendance at the Martinez trial. Accompanying her was Miss Ines Gilmore, a well known novelist. Mrs. Mooney, Sr., mother of the defendant and her daughter, Miss Annie Mooney, were also in court.

CALIFORNIA BUSINESS MAN GETS QUICK RELIEF FROM STOMACH ILLS

H. W. Gray of Los Angeles Gives Mayr Remedy Credit for Good Health

H. W. Gray, a business man of Los Angeles and proprietor of a furniture establishment at 5878 Moneta Avenue, was for a long time a victime of stomach disorders. Mrs. Gray was similarly troubled.

They took Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. Then Mr. Gray wrote:

"My wife and I have both taken Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and both are well now. Your medicine is fine, and we have some yet in the house. If I should get sick I would sure send for more."

Such letters from happy users of this remedy come from all parts of the country. Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy is known everywhere. The first dose convinces—no long treatment.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid accretions and poisonous matter. It brings quick relief to sufferers from ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Many declare it has saved them from dangerous operations; many are sure it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitators, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYR'S. Go to Richmond pharmacists and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and ask many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you its wonderful effects. Advt.

INDIGENTS OF COUNTY BEING INVESTIGATED

MARTINEZ, April 9.—Miss Amy B. Steinhart was in Martinez Montinez Monday making an investigation of the indigent cases in this county in the interests of the State Board of Control. An exhaustive investigation is being made in the case of every person dependent upon the county for support and in furtherance of this aim she spent some time Monday consulting probation officer A. J. McMahon and the members of the board of supervisors.

PAMPHLETS TO COST $72,000

It will cost the state of California approximately $72,000 for printing the pamphlets containing the proposed constitutional amendments on each, according to a report filed with the state board of control by State Printer Richardson. These measures are to be voted on by the people at the November election and the law provides the pamphlets must be sent to every voter in the state.

Approximately 1,800,000 pamphlets will be printed, the law requiring that an additional number equaling half the registered electorate be printed.

The pamphlets, according to Richardson's estimate, will be 160 pages. The paper and ink used will cost approximately $40,000 and labor $22,000. Richardson recommends in his report that the pamphlets be printed in the form of newspapers asserting this will reduce somewhat the cost of printing that he estimates.

BANKS WOULD KEEP MONEY

A test case to determine the constitutionality of the law enacted by the 1913 legislature providing that banks shall turn over to the state all deposits "unclaimed" for 20 years or more, will be instituted by Attorney-General U. S. Webb. The decision to test the law resulted from a conference Tuesday in San Francisco of the Attorney-general, State Controller J. S. Chambers, W. R. Williams, superintendent of banks, and representatives from eight large state banks.

Approximately $100,000 is involved in the proposed suit. Bankers object to the law on several points, the most important being its alleged unconstitutionality, and the assertion that if the deposits are paid over to the state and a claimant later appears the banks will have to make good the money.

WILL BUY CORN IN OLD MEXICO

Arthur Chippendale and Arthur Hogg, who have been residing in Richmond for several months, having come from Mexico on account of the revolution now in progress in our sister republic, are arranging to charter a steamer to ply between San Francisco and ports on the west coast of Mexico to convey cargoes of corn which they are contemplating buying.

It appears that the corn crop in portions of Mexico has been phenomenal during the past two years and the farmers are very anxious to sell their product at a very low figure for cash. They do not want to have their crops confiscated by the armies at war in the country and so Messrs Chippendale and Hogg see an opportunity to invest some money in corn.

REPUBLICANS TO MEET ON SATURDAY NEXT

MARTINEZ, April 9.—A conference of the Republicans of Contra Costa county has been called to assemble in Martinez on Saturday, April 11 at 1:30 o'clock by M. R. Jones and C. M. Belshaw, the two members representing this county in the State Central Committee of the recent Bremner organization.

M. R. Jones in an interview this morning stated that the conference was designed to effect a reorganization of the Republican party in this county and all Republicans were extended an invitation to be present.

The call as issued by Messrs. Jones and Belshaw reads as follows:

Martinez, California, April 7, '14.
Dear Sir:

You are cordially invited to attend a conference to be held in Martinez on Saturday, April 11th, at 1:30 p. m., for the purpose of devising ways and means for the reorganization of the Republican party in Contra Costa county.

This letter is sent to you as one who has been active in the party and you are authorized to invite any one to the conference who is interested. It is impossible to send a letter to every Republican in the county, so we look to you for a suitable representation from your section.

It is hoped that there will be a large attendance, in order that the real party of progress and prosperity may be properly rehabilitated in this county.

Please reply to M. R. Jones, Martinez, Cal., stating the probable number that will be in attendance from your neighborhood.

Yours sincerely,
M. R. JONES,
C. M. BELSHAW,
Members of Republican State Central Committee.

RAILROAD ATTACKS LIABILITY ACT

SAN BERNARDINO, April 9.—An attack of the employers' liability act passed by the last legislature was begun here today by the Southern Pacific, which contended before the state industrial accident board that it and its employes were engaged in interstate commerce, and not subject to the California liability act.

The case was that of George W. Smith, a special officer employed by the company, who shot himself accidentally while on duty. The company refused to pay his wages while disabled. A. J. Pillsbury, commissioner, heard the arguments.

Henry J. Booth, counsel for the Southern Pacific, announced that the case would be tested before the highest courts, if necessary, in an effort to show the corporation is not liable for injuries of employes. The case was submitted, and the decision will be announced later.

BRAINIEST MEN IN THE CIRCUS

Paradoxically speaking, the brainiest men with the circus are those who are the most foolish. All of which is by the way of saying that one of the hardest jobs of the circus is that of being a clown. Of course, the natural idea is that all a clown must do to bring the laugh is just to "act funny." But it is in acting funny that the brains are required. Hence the reason that the clowns form one of the chief items of expense in the heavy payroll of the Sells-Floto Circus and Buffalo Bill (himself), which is to exhibit in this city Sunday, April 19.

Once upon a time it was easy for a clown to be funny. He had his comic song. He had his lines which could reach every part of the small tent in which the circus of the past held its performance. But that day has passed. The clown has no chance for words now, no chance for songs or for jests. In the Sells-Floto Circus this year the great canvases cover eleven acres and seat 14,000 persons. Only a man with the voice of a steamship siren could talk to an assemblage like that.

Therefore the clown of today must be a pantomimist of extraordinary intelligence. He must make his every movement supply all that the voice could add. He must make of himself a living caricature of the events of the day—for the old idea of a bismuth-smeared face and a ruff around the neck has passed as a standard of clowndom.

Therefore, among the forty clowns of the Sells-Floto—Huh? Yes, that's right, forty clowns, and you can count 'em if you want to—among the forty clowns of the Sells-Floto-Buffalo Bill Circus there are men who earn large salaries just for the reason that they are brainy enough to be foolish. Vaudeville forms their home in the winter time, the circus in the summer, and there never is a moment when they are not in demand. For there is nothing so scarce as a man who really can be funny under the requirements of today. That is why the management of the Sells-Floto Circus believes itself lucky, in that it has gathered forty of the most expert funmakers in the business. And all of them have the ability of making the sides ache from laughter—or they wouldn't be receiving salaries.

There is hardly an act—and many a feature is to be found in the Sells-Floto-Buffalo Bill program—that has not its assortment of clowns. You have heard of some of them: Fred Riggs, for instance, the funniest impersonator of women who has ever been in the circus business; Shorty Maynard, one of the smallest of clowns in the profession; Spader Johnson, the "clown with ideas," who has been a feature of the Sells-Floto circus for years; Jas. Paine, George Brown, Harry Bayfield, Geo. Russell, Al Dracula, Frank Stuot, Jack Klippel, John Albion, William Hershey, Edward White, Edward Walton, Abe Johnson, the two Plamondons, Jack Harris, W. Wright, Harry Shinn, Carlton Emery and many other form the compliment of the funmakers.

And there's a way of gaining an idea of the worth of these clowns. The parade, which will come at 10 o'clock the morning of the show's performance here. And there is another feature of the parade that is worth while, for as a special honor to this city, Col. William F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) himself is to lead the glittering two-mile spectacle. Later he will hold a reception for the children at the show grounds.

The price of admission this year? Well, everything about the circus has been increased except that. The admission remains the same, 25 cents.

Isn't it queer how little the people seem to care when some one wrongs you?

MANY GRANTED RIGHTS OF U. S. CITIZENS

MARTINEZ, April 9.—Out of the 23 applications for admission to citizenship nine were postponed for further hearing or denied for lack of qualification and fourteen admitted by Judge R. H. Latimer. The following were granted certificates: Gabriel Vargas, Lange C. Langeson, Franz Krudelveis, Robert M. McFarland, F. H. Stollmaster, Laurence Smith, Guiseppe Civitte, John Carlson, John Cashman, John Gerzin, James E. Smith, Antonio Coppo, Francisco Angotti, Jose J. Langensand.

TOLL BATTLE IN U. S. SENATE

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Public hearings were begun today before the senate canals committee on the repeal of the Panama tolls exemption. Senators who have introduced bills and resolutions on the subject were first heard.

Senator Norris, republican, spoke on his amendment to reaffirm the right of the United States to discriminate in favor of its own ships if it chooses to do so, and to direct the president to submit the controversy to arbitration. He opposed the exemption of a subsidy, but said he did not want congress to foreclose the right of the United States to control the canal.

Senator Thomas, democrat, urged his proposal to make the canal free to ships of all nations.

Commissioner Chamberlain of the navigation bureau, Prof. S. S. Huebner and Dr. Emery Johnson, who investigated the tolls question for President Taft, will be heard later.

A lot of people mistake laziness for fatigue this time of year.

ST. MARKS WHIST PARTY ON APRIL 14

The ladies of St. Mark's Catholic church have completed all arrangements for their whist party and dance at Pythian Castle on the evening of April 14th. The announcement last evening that the affair was to be held at Maple hall was an error and the ladies have requested the Record-Herald to announce the fact that Pythian Castle, on Fourth street, near Macdonald avenue, is the place where the function is to be held.

The elegant prizes to be awarded are on exhibition in the display window of Pulse Brothers, corner of Sixth street and Macdonald avenue.

MANY GUESTS AT DELIGHTFUL WHIST PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. LaSelle entertained many of their friends at an informal whist party held at their home at 153 Third street last evening. The prize winners for the evening were: First, ladies prize, Miss Ruth Ricabaugh; second prize, Mrs. Walter Wight and consolation prize, Mrs. Charles Andrews. First gentleman's prize, Charles Andrews; consolation prize, Walter Wight. The home had been prettily decorated for the evening's affair in pink and gold.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. R. Roe, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wight, Mrs. J. Peres, Dr. and Mrs. H. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Lee D. Windrem, Miss Helen Winfree, Stanford Philpott, Miss Ruth Ricabaugh, Robert Greenhagen, Walter LaSalle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Wright and Miss Ella LaSelle.

HAD CATARRH FIVE YEARS.

Mr. Johnson of St. Elmo, Illinois, was troubled five years with catarrh. The catarrh was so severe in his case that his life seemed threatened. As he expresses it himself, he had "one foot in the grave."

MR. S. S. JOHNSON
St. Elmo, Illinois.

Of course he tried to get relief. Many practitioners were consulted and a catarrh specialist in St. Louis was tried. He got so weak and thoroughly run down that he declares he could not walk more than a hundred yards without resting.

Few people understand that catarrh is a constant drain on the system. The discharge of mucus which is going on in such cases is largely composed of blood serum, and is a great waste. Sooner or later it will weaken the strongest man.

According to testimony received from Mr. Johnson, he was in a desperate condition, but he found relief from his trouble. We will let him say how he found it. His own words say:

"My friends told me to take Peruna, and I did so. I now feel that Peruna has saved my life. It is the best medicine on earth, and I would not be without it."

This seems almost too good to be true. No doubt there are some readers that will think so. The above statements, however, can be verified by writing Mr. Johnson.

Every home should be provided with the late edition of "The Ills of Life," sent free by the Peruna Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Easter Sunday to Witness Fast Game

Easter Sunday will see the uncorking of twisters, the slamming of the pellet to all corners of the lot and the shouts of the frenzied fans when the Alameda Alerts who claim the championship of the Encinal city tangle with the Richmond nine at the First Street grounds.

Manager Greathouse from his observatory on Cottage avenue last evening squinted one eye at the darkening heavens the other in the direction of his beloved ball park and then smiled a smile of satisfaction for he must have seen a rift in the sky that pronosticated fair weather for Sunday. Fair weather and a fast turf will make the game a rip-snorter from the start.

The Alameda Alerts from a clipping taken from the Pacific Coast Amateur Sportsman are rated as one of the fastest semi-professional horsehide clouters in the state.

CHAIR THROWER PAYS $10 FINE FOR ACTIONS

H. Kelly, who, in his imaginary dream a few nights ago, threw a chair that made good connections with the face of H. Adams in the Palm saloon on Washington avenue, appeared before Police Judge Lindsey today and pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $10.

Kelly stated that while asleep he dreamt that he was being shanghaied and when touched on the arm by Adams thought that his time had come and without fully awakening, grabbed the chair to which he had been sitting and threw it. There was a crash, a heavy thud following which Adams had to be untangled from the chair.

"GUNBOAT" SMITH AT THE PANTAGES

"Gunboat" Smith, the Richmond pugilist, is the star at the Pantages theatre this week. Smith is well known to Richmond people, having resided here for a number of years and in fact made his debut in the sporting world under the guidance of a well known Richmond saloon man.

KELLY'S ARMY DEMANDS FOOD

PUEBLO, Colo., April 9.—After breaking their way from box cars into which they had been locked, overpowering a dozen police and railroad detectives, 155 members of "General" Kelley's "army of the "unemployed" left a Denver and Rio Grande freight train two miles north of this city today and marched back to town, demanding food.

The men were escorted to the city corral, where the police made arrangements to supply a menu of beans, bread and coffee. It was soon as cars can be supplied, er the Missouri Pacific railroad as planned to send the "army" east ov-

GOOD FRIDAY TO BE OBSERVED AT ST. MARK'S

Tomorrow the services at St. Marks Catholic church will be of special interest to the Catholics of the parish. Good Friday is one of the most important days of obligation on the calendar of the Catholic church and immediately after the mass of the pre-canstified at 8 o'clock in the morning the veneration of the cross will occupy the attention of the faithful.

At 3:30 in the afternoon there will be stations of the cross and Friday evening a special feature will be a sermon preached by Rev. Father Haverin, doctor of sacred theology of San Francisco. The reverend father will speak on the topic, "The Passion of Our Savior."

There will also be special services in St. Marks church on Saturday morning.

GOOD FRIDAY TO BE OBSERVED

The Merchants' association today gave out the information that the members of the organization have concluded to close their stores in this city tomorrow afternoon between the hours of 12 m. and 3 o'clock p. m., on account of the day being Good Friday.

This action is in accordance with the request of a committee of the local Y. M. I. who have interviewed the different business men of Richmond during the past week with a view of having a portion of the sacred day generally observed.

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat less meat if you feel Backachy or Bladder troubles you—Salts is fine for Kidneys.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive; harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.
